5 26.04.2019 Heard Sri Kar, learned counsel for the petitioner.

By filing the writ petition, the petitioner has made the following prayer:

> "It is, therefore, prayed that the Hon'ble Court may be graciously pleased to admit this case after hearing both the sides may be pleased to issue a writ of Mandamus/certiorari or any other writ or direction which will deem fit and proper to this case by quashing Annexures- 3, 6, 11 and 13 asking the enhance highest rent and the rate of Rs.775/- in a retrospective manner including by quashing Annexure-13 the intimation of certificate case proceeding before the certificate officer cum Revenue officer, Jeypore opp.party no.5 in a discriminating manner, in comparison to the rent fixed vide Annexure-8 including pending of representations with costs;
>
> And for which act of your kindness, the petitioner shall as in duty bound, ever pray."

Even though direction is sought for against opposite party nos.3 and 4 and in spite of receipt of A.D., there is no appearance on behalf of opposite party bnos.3 and 4. There is no counter affidavit filed. Issuing notice, this Court has already directed for no coercive action against the petitioner. For the dispute involved herein, this Court finds no scope for entering into the dispute except leaving the matter for consideration of the Jeypore Municipality-opposite party nos.3 and 4 to consider the grievance of the petitioner by treating the writ petition as a representation and take decision, as appropriate. For the petitioner enjoying the interim protection granted by this Court on 10.7.2006 that shall continue for a period of four months within which period, the opposite party nos.3 and 4 shall take appropriate steps but involving the petitioner. It is open to the petitioner to serve a certified copy of this order along with the copy of the writ petition on opposite party nos.3 and 4 within a period of ten days hence.

Issue urgent certified copy of this order on proper application.

.

.....
BISWANATH RATH,J

sks